AN OVERFLOWING HOUSE.

Great Success of the Y. H. I. Charity Concert at Kaunakapili Church.

The Young Hawaiians' Institute again proved its usefulness and its vigor last night, by the delightful concert it gave for the benefit of the wives and children of political prisoners. Kaunakapili church was crowded to the door before the music started, and, even after many chairs had been brought in, the doorway and top of the steps were crowded with people who stood all through the concert. More than five hundred tickets had been sold prior to the evening, and many were bought at the door. The realization was something better than $300 for the laudable object mentioned.

An orchestra from the Government band played an overture and a closing march in excellent style, and members of that body ably contributed to other numbers. Members of the Institute gave two choruses—"Moani ke Ala" and "Malannai"—so acceptably as to win hearty encores. W. A. Love rendered one of his superb violin solos, accompanied on the piano by Prof. Herold. W. Coelho's fine voice was heard to advantage in the song, "Open Thy Lattice," accompanied by Prof. Eca da Silva. A quintette, "94th Serenade," was beautifully executed by the following well-known artists: Marques, guitar; Desky, flute; Love, violin; Rosen, viola; Heitman, cello.

Miss May K. Cummins in the sweetest of notes sang the "Sweetest Story Ever Told," with accompaniment by Prof. Herold. She responded pleasantly to an encore. Mrs. Tietjen and Mr. Falke's piano and organ duet was applauded with deserved warmth. Miss Kulamann Ward was heard with great delight, as she always is, in the song "Shadows," with a happy accompaniment by Miss Patch. Messrs. Ordway and Hennessey gave entrancing music in duet with mandolin and guitar, the theme being from "Il Trovatore." Next to the closing march, in the well arranged program, came a superior string trio. Heitman on the violin, Rosen on the viola and Marques on the guitar.

It is seldom that a concert with every number a gem, as this one was, favors the music-lovers of Honolulu.

Boy's star waist "The Mother's Friend," new and elegant designs only $1 each at McInerney's.

Cash is everything in business now-a-days. By purchasing with it and selling for it I am enabled to place clothing, hats, shirts, underwear, hosiery, neckwear, trunks, etc., etc., on this market at Eastern prices. L. D. Timmons, Waring Block.

Don't Make a Mistake!

The oldest, best and cheapest furniture store in the city was established by the veteran furniture dealer and undertaker, Mr. C. E. Williams, in 1859, and is now conducted by him and his oldest son Ed. A. Williams at 611 King St. We wish to notify our patrons and the public generally that we have no connection whatever with any other furniture and undertaking establishment in Honolulu.

THERE IS NO MISTAKE.

When people walk into the CITY FURNITURE STORE at the corner of Fort and Beretania streets and ask for Mr. H. H. Williams, they make no mistake.

They know where they can get the best value for their money and a good variety to select from.

C. E. WILLIAMS having sold his ENTIRE INTEREST in the Furniture and Undertaking Business to Mrs. Ed. A. Williams on the 17th day of June, A. D. 1895, and having left the country, his second son, HENRY H. WILLIAMS, now becomes the oldest experienced FURNITURE DEALER AND UNDERTAKER in Honolulu.

MR. H. H. WILLIAMS entered the employ of his father about twenty-five years ago, since which time he has made a continuous study of the Furniture and Undertaking Business. He graduated from Dr. S. Rodgers' Perfect Embalming School in 1890, since which time he has made a success of that branch of the business.

He does not advertise the oldest nor largest stock of Furniture in town, nor does he covet all the trade in town.

He only asks for his share, and from appearances he is getting it, consequently he is satisfied.

He receives new goods every month and fills order promptly.

WELL! WELL!! WELL!!!

Just Look at the Mistakes.

When people order by telephone of another Furniture Store and then walk into C. E. WILLIAMS & SONS Store and ask why the goods are not delivered on time they make a mistake. When a lady telephones to the store of C. E. Williams & Son to come and take back a piano that was sent to her by another furniture man she makes a mistake.

It is a Mistake to think that C. E. WILLIAMS has left the country without a return ticket.

It was a Mistake to try to stop him from going.

It is a Mistake to imagine that he will not return with a stock of goods, with prices that will make the public happy and paralyze some folks.

It is a Mistake if Clark's school of embalming from which Mr. ED. A. WILLIAMS graduated last year is not the best on Earth.

It is a Mistake if you think we do not covet all the trade in town; we do! We would like the Earth and Necker Island thrown in.

It is a Mistake if you think (all insinuations to the contrary) that we do not still remain, Yours as ever,

C. E. WILLIAMS &amp; SON,
